Revival, Saturday, November 19, 2022, St. John's Church 91 Anson Street &
Prayer Procession, Sunday, November 20, 2022, South of The Battery

One New Humanity Charleston Foundation announces their inaugural event for the city of Charleston and the surrounding communities to come together with one heart and purpose, with all classes, races, and denominations to pray for unity, healing and peace.

We will begin with a Revival at St. John's Church, 91 Anson St. on Saturday, November 19th at 5:00pm. On Sunday, November 20th at 2:00pm we will start with a Prayer procession South of the Battery and march to six more notable landmarks in downtown Charleston where the wounds of our past will be healed through unity, love and compassion. Each landmark will include theatrical commentary to depict moments in history, with prayers and singing. The procession will end at Marion Square as we pray for unity, healing and peace.

"We will fellowship. We will break bread. We will sing. We will dance. We will gather in one accord for Repentance, Forgiveness, Reconciliation, Unity and Revival," says Reverend Anthony Thompson, Founding Chairman at One New Humanity. "Through Repentance, Forgiveness, Reconciliation, and Unity, we will become One New Humanity."

We are raising funds to cover the costs of the event from promotion to production. Our Prayer is that every church in the Lowcountry and all of South Carolina will play an important part of uniting our communities, city and state.

One New Humanity Charleston is seeking Volunteers. If you have a passion for serving or have specific skills that you can contribute, please let us know.

While some seek to divide, we seek to unite. The revival and prayer procession will answer hatred with love, and division with unity. Join us Saturday, Nov. 19th at St. John's Church for the Revival and Sunday, November 20, 2022 at Battery Park, Charleston, South Carolina for the Prayer Procession.

GOD'S Love, Grace & Mercy be upon you and yours.
